EXPERIENCE

OPERATIONS + PODCAST MANAGER, CONSCIOUS COMPANY MEDIA
Boulder, CO | 2017-2019

Conscious Company Media is dedicated to educating leaders in how to use their businesses as a force for positive change. CCM publishes nationally-distributed Conscious Company Magazine, hosts immersive leadership training events, and runs a membership community that educates business leaders in the why and how of building businesses that have a positive impact on employees, the planet and the communities in which they reside. At CCM, my roles and projects have included margin and pricing analysis, website re-design and re-launch, launching multimedia content, launching + producing the World-Changing Women Podcast, partnership development, and establishing scalable operations processes.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT PROGRAM, GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.
Various locations | 2014-2017

GE's Finance Management Program is a rotational leadership development program consisting of four job rotations coupled with graduate level coursework in financial statement analysis, foundational accounting, operations and strategy. My roles and projects included financial planning and analysis, operations and project finance, supply chain analysis, process simplification and implementation, productivity analysis, and auditing. In each role, I routinely presented to large audiences and transformed big data into actionable information. I graduated from GE's Foundations of Leadership course on leading lean, effective teams and refining my leadership style. Roles included:

- International Appliances Financial Planning Analyst - Louisville, KY
- Distributed Power Engineering Operations Analyst - Houston, TX
- Oil & Gas Supply Chain Analyst - Oklahoma City, OK
- Digital Solutions Finance IT Analyst - Minden, NV
- Corporate Audit Staff: Italian VAT tax audit support - Stanford, CT
- Director of Communications for FMP Energy
- GE BrilliantYOU corporate learning blog + podcast contributor
